

YMCA Announces Schedule Of Activities for June

With just a few weeks remaining before the big camp season opens, the YMCA has planned a number of activities.

These events were disclosed at the recent YMCA board of managers installation dinner. Besides installing the new members and officers, plaques were presented to Albert Isen, Mayor of Torrance, and Ben Smith, re-elected president of the board for their leadership in the YMCA during the past year.

This evening at the First Methodist Church, 21 Gra-Y

Club leaders will be honored by membership in the National Leaders' Fellowship for their service to youth this past school year.

75th Dinner
On the following Thursday, June 5, the Los Angeles YMCA, of which Torrance is a branch, will hold its 75th annual dinner at the Statler Hotel. Guest of honor and principal speaker will be Theodore V. Houser, chairman of the board of Sears, Roebuck and Co.

The following Friday and Saturday, June 6 and 7, will see the Annual Book Sale by the Y's Men Service Club. All of the proceeds will be used to purchase much needed equipment at the Y. The book sale will be held at 1265 Sartori Ave. The hours are Friday, 9 a.m.-9 p.m., and Saturday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

Have Pow Wow
June 7 and 8, approximately 200 Y Indian Guide dads and sons will have an overnight Pow Wow at Chilao on the Angeles Crest Hwy. Living out-of-doors like "real" Indians the boys and their dads will be hiking, sightseeing, and having an Indian campfire.

KNOW YOUR MAN

VINCE THOMAS has been a Member of the California State Legislature since 1941. His seniority in the Legislature offers him an unusual opportunity for exceptional Committee assignments and other legislative privileges that are reflected in greater benefits for the people he represents. . . . has been described by leading citizens as "one of the finest legislators produced in California in the last 50 years." He has one of the most "Consistently Good" voting records of any Member of the Legislature. He is an advocate of efficiency and economy in government.

VINCE THOMAS is a member of several Assembly Committees vital to the welfare of his district. They include Fish and Game, Revenue and Taxation, Civil Service and State Personnel, Constitutional Amendments, Interstate Cooperation Commission, and he is a member of the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission.

He has a record of attendance at Committee Meetings, at sessions of the Legislature, and at other places and times of importance to his district, unequalled by any other Member of the Assembly.

Vince Thomas Achievements

A few of the major achievements and objectives of Assemblyman Vincent Thomas are:
More than 50,000 new jobs will be created in the shipyards of our state because of legislation sponsored by Assemblyman Vince Thomas and enacted at the recent March session of the State Legislature.
Boat owners, fishermen, cannery workers and cannery workers recognize that, in Vince Thomas, they have a tried and true friend.
Assemblyman Thomas has always worked for the improved local and state highways and he is credited with being one of the best informed Assemblymen on highway construction problems.
He stands for adequate and realistic benefits for the aged and the needy.
He is a friend of the blind and the infirm, and he devotes considerable time and effort to enact legislation beneficial to all handicapped children and adults.
Vince is a staunch supporter of our public parks and playgrounds system.
He is a leader in supporting beneficial veterans' legislation and he is an important influence in movements to improve and to strengthen our state and national defense programs.
Assemblyman Thomas has been a leader in working for the mass rapid transit system now being created in the Greater Los Angeles Area.

He has played a foremost role in protecting the water rights of Southern California.
Assemblyman Vincent Thomas possesses an exemplary record in both private and public life.
He began his education at the "Old" San Pedro Fifth Street School and graduated with Ephemian Ring Honors for Scholarship and Character from San Pedro High School. He was awarded a degree in Bachelor of Philosophy from the University of Santa Clara and he is an alumnus of the Santa Clara and Loyola Law Schools.
Vince was married in 1947 to Mary Di Carlo and they are the proud parents of two children, Mary Virginia and Vincent Anthony.
Businessmen, civic leaders, women's organizations, fraternal groups, labor officials, newspapers, and others in the San Pedro, Harbor City, Torrance, Lomita, Wilmington and Dominguez areas endorse him for re-election.
Political Party Leaders Say: Leaders of both the Democratic and the Republican parties agree that his type of representation in the Halls of our State Capitol in Sacramento pays the biggest dividends for the people of his district.
For conscientious representation — Assemblyman Vincent Thomas is our man!
